

Ohio Network for the Chemically Injured (ONFCI) Presents:

Detect and Protect A Community Event

Berea Rec Center

451 Front Street

Saturday, August 11th

9:30 am -5:30 pm

FREE SCREENING FOR TOXIC METALS/ELEMENTS

(Limit 1 soil or other media test per person. Go to www.ohionetwork.org to see instructions for collecting samples)

*Reputable Experts To Answer Your Questions:

*Bill Radosevich - Metals expert from Thermo-Scientific

*Kathleen Fagan, MD - CWRU School of Medicine

*Jeff Heinen - Heinen's Fine Foods

*X-ray technology will test your sample for 26 elements in seconds

*Free Info on Food Safety

*Free Snacks and Samples

*Raffle To Win Hepa Vacuum

*Wear Your Best Detective Outfit &
Win a Prize

Admission FREE With Any Donation To ONFCI!

(Your donations are tax deductible)

Ohio Network For The Chemically Injured

Visit www.ohionetwork.org for more information or call 440.845.1888

An educational project of the University of N.C. at Asheville's Environmental Quality Institute, ONFCI, and Thermo-Scientific